Cast of the play will consist of over 200 citizens of Hindman and Knott County. Mrs. Edward Nauss, of Chapel Hill, N. C., will direct the pageant, which will be staged Thursday night at 7:00 o'clock on the school campus.

Students Excell At Middlesboro

"How did Letcher County students do at the Middlesboro Festival over the week end?" is a question which many Countians have asked and the answers those persons received were all the same and on the positive side.

For Letcher County's students made outstanding showings at the Southeastern Kentucky Music Association at Middlesboro last Thursday, Friday and Saturday and folks in this county have plenty to be proud of.

The annual music festival, which had its third meeting this year, is one of the biggest events of this section. It included two days of performing and judging in churches and schools for individual and group entries and a climax day for all events.

The big day began on Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock when thirteen marching bands paraded through the streets of Middlesboro. Big event of that day came off at 2:00 p.m. when the All Festival Band and Chorus began at the Lincoln Memorial Gymnasium in Harrogate, Tennessee.

Judges from Kentucky and other states had been on hand during the entire festival to hear the students perform and talk to them personally of their problems and give advice on how to improve technique and ability.

Individual and group entries were given written criticisms from the judges. The entire festival was non-competitive and these criticisms, all constructive, were solely intended for the betterment of the students.

Fifteen hundred students representing thirteen schools from six counties attended and participated in the three-day festival. Three Letcher County schools, Jenkins, Whitesburg and Fleming-Neon were represented.

An outstanding feature, which attracted much attention on the Thursday night program was Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Adams' Ballet Class from the Whitesburg School. Capacity audiences were seen at all events.

Jaycees, Council Cooperate To Mark Whitesburg Streets

At a regular weekly meeting Tuesday night, the Whitesburg Jaycees unanimously voted to donate $210.00 toward erecting street signs in thirty locations on Whitesburg streets.

The sum voted toward the project by the Jaycees represents half of the total cost of the street markers.

Reception Planned For Juniors, Seniors

The Whitesburg Jaycees have extended an invitation to the Juniors, Seniors and teachers of those classes of the Whitesburg High School to attend a reception at the Quillen Building following the Junior-Senior Banquet Thursday, May 8.

Junior and Senior class students, their escorts, dates and parents are invited to the reception, which will be chaperoned by the Jaycees and Jayettes.

An orchestra, composed of local talent, will be on hand to play for the occasion. No charge will be made for admission.

The reception will be held on the ground floor of the Quillen Building, where the Whitesburg Bakery was previously located.

HOMEMAKER MEET HELD

Special chartered buses from Letcher and four other Eastern Kentucky counties rolled into Whitesburg Tuesday morning as 227 homemakers gathered at the Presbyterian Church for the nineteenth annual district meeting of the Kentucky Federation of Homemakers.

Represented by the group, which began registering at 9:30 a.m. were Letcher, Perry, Pike, Johnson and Knott Counties.

Mrs. Arthur Eversole, of Perry County, who presided at the meeting, called the meeting to order at 10:00 o'clock and Mrs. J. S. Bell gave the invocation. Guest speaker of the day was Mrs. Anna C. Pettes, of Brush, Colorado, who recently returned from the Polynesian Islands. She spoke on home conditions in those islands.

Others who spoke were Mrs. Myrtle Weldon, State leader of Homemakers, Mrs. Helen M. White and Miss Vandilla Price, Home agent supervisors, and Mrs. Wade Holt.

Elihu Cook Passes At Kona Residence

Elihu Cook, 80, became the second old-timer Kona resident to pass within the week as he died of paralysis at his home there Tuesday morning, April 29.

Five days earlier, Charlie Branch, 65, of Kona, had died at the Sego Hospital.

Born June 13, 1871, in Letcher County Elihu was the son of Archie Cook and Nancy Cook. He was married to Dora Belle Breeding, 74, who survives him.

Besides his wife, he is survived by six sons, Lindsay, Kona; Curt, Bowling Green; Can, John, and Lester all of Kona; and Pete, of Bowling Green.

Mr. Cook had been a miner, employed by the Elkhorn Coal Company of Kona for many years.

Funeral services were held this morning at the Little Rock Regular Baptist Church, Kona, at 11:00 o'clock (EST), with the Elders Basil Hall, T. R. Collier, Willis Tolliver and Dixie Ison officiating.

Circuit Judge Courtney C. Wells entered an order this week calling a Special May Term of the Letcher Circuit Court "to try and dispose of the many cases pending on the Common Law Docket of the Court."

Jury Acquits Coal Operator

Gail Ison, 37-year-old coal operator from Ison, was acquitted by a Letcher County jury last Friday of a charge of shooting at with intent to kill.

Ison had been jointly indicted with Bradley Breeding, also of Ison, in the death by heart attack of Constable James Combs, about 55, on Colly last September.

The two men were charged with shooting at Combs at the time of the Constable's death. An indictment charging wilful murder was also returned from charges growing out of the death of Combs.

The case against Breeding was dropped by the Commonwealth after Ison's acquittal. The Commonwealth had chosen to try the two separately, taking Ison first because the case against him was thought to be the stronger.

The Letcher County jury decided that Ison had not been responsible for the Constable's death.

Countians Enroll At Pikeville College

Seven young Letcher County women and one man are among the 52 present or prospective school teachers recently enrolled for the nine-week spring term at Pikeville Jr. College, Dr. A. A. Page, college president announced today.

County Judge Robert Collins, U. S. Representative Carl Perkins, and State Senator Archie Craft journeyed to Frankfort last Thursday in the interest of the Blackey-Roxana road and were assured that the contract for the road would be let in the near future.

A Great Institution Stands Out On Fiftieth Birthday

A great mountain institution celebrates its fiftieth anniversary this coming week and The Eagle wishes to congratulate that institution, The Hindman Settlement School, for the outstanding educational work it has done in this part of Kentucky.

Since its beginning in 1902, the school has played a vital part in the development of Knott and surrounding counties. It started as, and has always been a school for mountain children who had no educational facilities close at hand. Those children have profited from the training offered by the school and the school has profited in turn as those children have gone on to make their alma mater a well known institution to all professions.

There are few Knott Countians who can not go back to the beginning of the school and relate the tale of "Uncle" Solomon Everidge, who made a 22-mile barefoot trek from Hindman to Hazard to ask the "quare woman" to come to the valley of the Troublesome to start a school. "Uncle" Solomon had, as many others had also, realized the need of a school in the then wild and turbulent little town known as Hindman. His vision and foresight paid off heavily throughout the years as the settlement grew in stature and helped to elevate Hindman to a prominent position among Eastern Kentucky towns.

Persons outside Knott County sometimes become confused and think of the Hindman school as a settlement where all students board while enrolled. This is a misconception, since the great majority of students come by bus from such places as Mousie and Lackey, near the Floyd County line in one direction, and from communities and farms near the Perry County line in the other.

There are still boarding students in the settlement, however, and such students as these have been a credit to the school . . . as their industry and eagerness to work and learn have always been above the average.

There is much to be said for the Hindman school and all it has accomplished in fifty short years and we wish space would allow us to list a few of the accomplishments. We can't even sing praises in so short a space, however, so we'll just close with a verbal pat on the back for the great institution.

It Pours When It Rains In Kentucky In April

An old adage, "When it rains, it pours," held true over the entire past week end and it was a welcome rain, indeed, although many sportsmen and others would rather the rain had waited until the middle of the week to come down from its heavy clouds.

The first few small showers hit this part of the country on Wednesday afternoon and night and by Thursday morning it seemed that the trees, shrubs, and all of spring's fine greenery had suddenly burst out all over the place. There was a clean feeling in the air and ex farmer boys felt like leaving their office desks as garden sprouts jumped up overnight. Everyone was glad for the rain.

By Sunday, however, most of us were pretty tired of the continuous drizzly downpour. Fishermen were complaining because of high muddy waters or the drenching rain which prevented them from getting a hook in the water while farmers were worrying because the ground might be too wet to work for a few days after the rain did finally stop. When the rain didn't stop by Sunday night, there were words of dissension heard and even the old weatherman, who has a job of predicting the unpredictable, came under criticism for his fair and warmer forecast.

The sun finally popped out on Monday and tempers and tension seemed to be eased for the time being as uncle Sol was welcomed on all sides. There was even more pleasant in the air as the sun came down harder on Tuesday and high waters started to fall and construction workers returned to their jobs as birds sang and children played every where. Spring had really sprung in all its finery.

Now we are wondering just when many will get tired of the sun and complain of the hot weather . . . and we will be among those complaining? Human nature is strange indeed and it always seems to be at its strangest when the seasons of the year change.

Perhaps that's why we were given the seasons and we Kentuckians are especially blessed with seasons which are in constant contrast. It's good to be a Kentuckian anytime, but we appreciate it more now . . . in the spring.

Safety Conference Held In Louisville

All Kentuckians were asked to interest themselves in highway safety and to familiarize themselves with safety problems in Kentucky by delegates who attended the Third Annual Governor's Highway Safety Conference in Louisville early this month.

The conference requested that public officials, school officials and members of civic clubs, particularly, become familiar with recommendations made at the meeting and help put them across to the general public. Copies of the proposals will soon be printed and made available to the public.

Included in items recommended at the conference were:

Driver education in all high schools for students at legal driving age.

Organization of safety committees in all communities by public officials and fraternal and service organizations.

Organization of safety committees in schools.

Better safety measures for school buses.

Broadening of highway shoulders to permit mail vehicles and other vehicles stopping on the roadway to pull off the pavement.

Better safety training for highway engineers.

A comprehensive new program on highway lighting and rural sidewalks where needed.

Better highway signs and better maintenance of signs.

Legislation to require drivers to take tests more often.

Uniform traffic laws in all municipalities.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

114 Bassett Court
Lexington, Ky.
April 25, 1952.

Mr. Russell Rice
Sports Editor
Mountain Eagle
Whitesburg, Ky.

Dear Mr. Rice:

I want to make a public apology to the people of Whitesburg and vicinity who were expecting our Markwell All Star team to play there tonight, April 25.

Shortly before time to begin the journey to Whitesburg, we learned that some members of the team could not make the trip in time to reach your city by game time. I tried to get some substitute players, but it was too late; we would have been at least an hour or more late for the game, and we felt that would be as great an imposition on the fans as if the game were canceled, and perhaps scheduled for a later date.

I put in a call for Whitesburg to inform the Junior Chamber of Commerce officials that we could not reach there on time. By the time the call got through it was definitely too late to drive. I then tried to charter a plane to take us, but the planes in Lexington were all grounded because of inclement weather. That left us no choice but to abandon hope of getting to Whitesburg tonight.

Our failure to appear in Whitesburg was particularly disappointing to me, because I feel I have many friends in that part of Kentucky. I certainly do not want to lose one of them because of this misadventure. I really want to play in Whitesburg, and would welcome an opportunity to redeem myself in the estimation of the fans and the friends I have there.

Sincerely yours,
—BILL SPIVEY.

Dear Sir:

I am a subscriber to The Eagle and would be very glad if you would print this letter in your paper. I want to say hello to all my friends in Letcher County, where I was raised. I married Catherine Eoffs, of Eubank. We have a nice farm. I have cleared a big new ground this winter and spring. We have several cows and hogs. I have built me a new chicken house and have 500 New Hampshire chicks, besides my laying hens. We sell 36 dozen eggs per week. I have also started me a dog kennel of registered black and tan American coon hounds. I am planning on digging a fish pond this summer.

Thank you,

Mr. Willard Blair.

Dear Sir:

On behalf of the Kentucky Division, American Cancer Society, I wish to thank you for your recent article WHY WONT LETCHER COUNTY GIVE IN THE FIGHT AGAINST CANCER? The information and facts were beautifully presented and we would also like to know the answer to the question WHY? Our records show the following number of medically indigent cancer patients were admitted to our clinics for diagnosis and for treatment: 1948—187 patients—Letcher County. 1949—133 patients—Letcher County. 1950—203 patients—Letcher County. 1951—82 patients—Letcher County.

We feel that we have rendered a great service to Letcher County and know that the citizens of your county will support our programs of research, service and education if asked.

Mrs. J. L. Hays is our volunteer chairman for Whitesburg and the northern part of Letcher County. Miss Gertrude Gambill is chairman for Jenkins and the southern part of the county.

We feel, with your support, that these two ladies will see to it that Letcher County raises its 1952 goal of seven hundred and fifty dollars ($750.00). We spend more than this amount each year on medically indigent patients from your county.

Sincerely yours,

Charles E. Tucker,
M. P. H. Executive Director.

Letcher in Detroit...

by Rev. Byrd Adams

DETROIT—Since my last column appeared in papers some weeks ago a lot of things have happened. There were a series of events and circumstances that led abruptly to the unannounced temporary termination of this column with out the intention of turning the situation into an extended leave of absence.

However, thanks to the change of the said train of circumstances and the health giving properties of the warm spring sunshine, I am back to the inspiring task of walking the streets of Motor City once more.

To get back to the root of the trouble and try to offer an excuse for the unexplained absence—since many of my readers have been demanding that I give account of myself—I'll have to take you back to November when I began winter (unofficially) in the same manner that I begin all winters in Detroit, by catching my first "simple"—hah! "simple" they say!—head colds.

During the long winter months to follow, was to become the fore-pappy of many another much "simple" disturbance as head cold, chest cold, coughs, red noses, weeping eyes, headaches, infected sinus, flu, weakened constitution and loss of appetite, etc.

Whoever invented that word "Simple" surely must not have intended it to be applied to these wintry miseries such as the quack cure-alls, patent medicine exponents and prescription artists so inaptly merit it when speaking of the ailments of their "marvelous formula" which is supposed to counteract the irritable feelings of the simple cold.

I am at presently looking ahead in hopeless anticipation, still dizzy from my last rendezvous with sinus pains, to another short Detroit summer without probably more than two bad summer colds to keep me in prime for the coming next November chill.

Sometimes I think it is the old devil bringing all these colds and their by-products to me just to hinder me in the Lord's work. Well, I must say that the old tormentor certainly succeeds in hindering me a lot. They say the old rascal with forked horns (really, I think he actually appears a demon in angel's clothing) always tempts a person through their weakest traits of personality. Well, in that case I know where to expect him.

Yesterday, during a ten to twelve sinus pain I said to my wife, "As soon as we can make a move, I'm getting out of here and we're heading for California to get out of this climate."

I wouldn't be surprised to know that old Lucifer, walking up and down before the throne of God, remarked, "See! I told you he couldn't hold out. Already he's fixing to move in search of another cold remedy."

Well, after all my trials and tribulations, through sickness and an active one hundred and above work schedule, I finally began to break down in the wake of this city's mushy winter climate and started neglecting my column by deciding to take a partial vacation to recuperate.

But, since my doctor bills for penicillin, capsules, pills and more pills, nose drops, cough remedies, vitamin pills, etc., plus loss of work ran a high expense bill I decided I'd better come out of the dilemma fighting. My first step toward making a comeback is to reappear with this column to bore my readers some more.

Well, with all the news 'a' poppin' and the, officially anyway, touch of spring in the air, as the hound dog's instinct drives him out on the jack rabbit trail, so does the writer crave to smell the ink, fresh from his modern quill, fall a prey upon idle pages endeavoring to express deep or troubled thoughts to others without ever quiet succeeding—fortunately.

More news has accumulated lately than Walter Winchell could make room for. However, Adams will use it and cry for more. Mail in your names and addresses and information, call me up with details, tell all to Adams. You don't think it newsy enough? Well don't worry about that. It may be more newsy than you think.

Next week I'll let you in on another excuse for the absence of my column during the past several weeks of hectic days.

TO THE PEOPLE OF LETCHER COUNTY

The 1952 session of the Kentucky Legislature ended March 21 and since this Legislature made some radical changes in the public assistance program, I feel it my duty to pass along this information to you.

After July 1, 1952, any person receiving "Blind or Old Age Assistance" will, when they endorse their July check, give the State of Kentucky a lien on any property which they may have and this mortgage will have precedence over any other indebtedness, except funeral expenses, which was not covered by mortgage prior to July 1, 1952.

In my opinion, this is one of the most disgraceful Legislative acts to be passed by the General Assembly of Kentucky in the last ten years. I hope that every citizen of this county will be kept well posted on what was happening at Frankfort during the session. The Legislature was so dominated by the Governor and his political machine that it was almost impossible to defeat any measure which was pushing.

In the Budget Bill which was passed early in the session, there was appropriated approximately $2 million dollars for Public Assistance cases for the next two years. This should give a small increase to all assistance cases, as the number of cases are decreasing at the rate of 200 or more per month, due to the fact that Social Security and miner's welfare are ever picking up more of our welfare cases.

To me, it seems useless to appropriate this vast sum of money for assistance and then force the recipient of mortgage the homestead to the State of Kentucky in order to qualify for assistance.

My greatest sympathy goes out to those who are in need, especially those who are in their declining years and have given the best part of their lives that the next generation may have a better community in which to live. I want to assure that I fought this bill to the end and will continue to do so in the future, until we reach the point that all the old aged persons will receive pensions sufficient to furnish them with the necessities of life without having to mortgage the old homestead which has sheltered them all down through the years.

Representative,
—BILL ADAMS.

Camporees Planned By Scout Troops

Awards will be given on the basis of camping done by the Scouts. Points will be given for Pack craft, camp craft, including the erecting of shelter and proper bedding, camp site cleanliness and originality in making camp gadgets. Scouts plan their own menus and prepare their own food. Cooking is judged on the basis of tastiness, cleanliness and serving on time. Patrol organization and discipline is given careful consideration in rating the troop.

The following dates and places for the camporees have been set by the Council Camping Committee, with J. T. Pickett, Wheelwright as Chairman.

Safety On Our Highways

—by Windus L. Williams The majority—if not all—of today's traffic accidents can be traced back to bad habits on someone's part!

Doing the right thing when a traffic crisis confronts you and having an automobile mechanically capable of responding the way it should are two factors determining whether the accident takes place or not.

Today's traffic demands that both driver and car be at peak performance at all times. A deficiency in either can completely cancel out all assets—mechanical or human—or both.

"Make safe driving a habit—check your car—check your accidents."

Six nationally known authorities on rural health problems, along with agricultural, medical, health and home demonstration leaders, will be featured on the first Kentucky Rural Health Conference to be held May 7 and 8 at the Brown Hotel in Louisville.

"We have waited long enough," is the theme of the Conference that is sponsored by the Kentucky Rural Health Council, which is composed of 13 statewide organizations interested in promoting better health in rural communities, according to Walter L. O'Neil, M. D. Henderson, Chairman of the Council, who made the announcement.

Elephants To Be Big Feature In Circus

Miss Bradley travels on a trunk—an elephant's trunk, that is, when Wallace & Clark Circus is in town.

Big "Babe" is the largest circus elephant in the world and she is as talented as she is gentle, for "Babe" doubles in brass-and-overalls, which is how circus people say that an elephant works in harness as well as in spangles.

"Babe's" tall mount helps put the circus together and she helps take it apart. She knows how to roll and fold canvas, a feat that the circus manager, Norman Anderson, delights in pointing out to people who wonder if elephants are smart.

Elephants, camels, zebra, tigers, lions, apes, baboons, monkeys and many other zoological rarities abound in the huge circus wild animal menagerie, which is included in a ticket of admission to the main show.

The Circus, under new management, brings its show for afternoon and evening performance on May 5 at Whitesburg.

All the cages of animals, including the big Hippopotamus, are thrown open "free" to the public at 10 a. m. on circus day, where may be seen the feeding and watering of the wild animals.

Chrysler V-8 Saratoga Sedan, gasoline economy winner in Class "F". Entered and driven in the 1952 National Gas Economy Run by Chrysler Dealer Mel Albright, Hollywood, It was one of three Chrysler FirePower V-8's to win in their respective classes.

180 HP CHRYSLER V-8 FIRST IN 3 CLASSES IN ECONOMY RUN!

Here is truly dramatic proof that Chrysler's great new FirePower 180 HP V-8 engine design sets an entirely new standard of efficiency among American passenger car engines!

In this annual economy test, rigidly supervised, and limited strictly to stock car entrants, cars competing are divided, by price and size, into 11 standard classes. The route, from Los Angeles to San Valley, covered 1,415 miles of every possible kind of driving. Average speed for all cars was just under 41 miles per hour.

And in 3 of the 11 classes, the Chrysler V-8 engine was best for gasoline mileage.

In Class "F", this magnificent new engine won first place for a Saratoga 6-passenger sedan (195½-inch wheelbase, 4010 pounds).

In Class "H", it won first honors for a Saratoga model 8-passenger sedan (193½-inch wheelbase, 4510 pounds). And in the top price and size, Class "I", it was again first, in a Chrysler Crown Imperial Sedan (145½-inch wheelbase, 5360 pounds).

To travel these substantial cars at this speed under these conditions gives additional proof, we believe, that here in the FirePower V-8 engine is the finest and most efficient engine ever put into an American passenger car!

WE INVITE YOU TO DRIVE THIS ENGINE, YOURSELF...

The same engine which has just scored these remarkable accomplishments is no farther from you than your own Chrysler Dealer. He will welcome the chance to let you take the wheel and feel for yourself what Chrysler has done... not only in engine performance, but in power steering, power brakes, new shock absorbers, passenger comfort... to deserve the title: "Finest Car America Has Yet Produced!"

FARM NOTES

Again the question arises—will sulphur help stop tomato blight if put in the tomato hills. Answer: This is of no value whatsoever in the control of tomato blight. Again, I will try to explain the control for tomato blight. The spray schedule should be started by at least by the time the tomatoes start blooming and should be continued each week until you have had all the tomatoes you want. Use a copper wet-spray or if you have plenty of money, revert to copper dust. Copper dust is about 15 times as expensive to use. If you spray with a wet spray use a pressure spray with copper. Do this every and completely coat the plant week, and if the rain washes

JAYCEE NOTES

The Whitesburg Jaycees wish to publicly apologize to the many persons who turned out at the Whitesburg gym Friday night to see Bill Spivey and his Markwell All-Star team which was supposed to appear there for a game with the East Kentucky All Stars.

On the editorial page of this issue of The Eagle is a letter from Spivey explaining why he couldn't be here. We won't add to or take from the letter... just let it stand as it is, for as far as the Jaycees are concerned the incident is closed and we are resolving to work harder to make up for any disappointment or inconvenience we may have caused the persons who turned out for the game.

We won't delve into the past any further, although pleasant memories are associated with the Come to Church Month project which we considered a success. Our concern is the future and on top right now is the marking of Whitesburg's streets with as fine a group of markers as you'll find anywhere. The Jaycees have agreed to put up their share, $210.00, and the City Council will vote on equal share at its next meeting. We congratulate Mayor Banks and the City Council members on their willingness to help beautify the city.

The dog inoculating project Saturday afternoon was a minor success, considering the inclement weather. Thirty-two dogs were inoculated by Dr. Robert D. Collins, who has so generously donated his time for the safety of citizens of the county. Since many dogs who would have otherwise been inoculated in pretty weather were not able to be at the Whitesburg school ground Saturday, the Jaycees have planned to have another mass inoculation on Saturday, May 10, from 1:00 o'clock to 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon. The same price $1.50, will be charged.

This is the first of a series of meetings to be held at various times preceding the date of the primary election, which will culminate in a mass meeting of all the Counties in the Seventh Congressional District at Pikeville, Ky.

STATEMENT BY PERKINS' FRIENDS

Carl Perkins has proven himself a tried and true friend of the coal miners in his District. He has spared no effort to serve his entire constituency in the Seventh Congressional District, and has proven a valuable public representative in the Congress of the United States for all the people. He has not spared himself in his efforts to serve the people in his Congressional District and they, along with the staunch support of the Union coal miners and other Union men and their friends will put forth every effort possible to re-elect him to the Congress of the United States and return him to Washington on January 1, 1953.

His work in the Congress of the United States has been outstanding and over-reaches the boundaries of his Congressional District. He is deserving of reelection and has the complete confidence of the Union men and their friends throughout the Seventh District.

In closing, we ask every Union man, woman, and their friends in the Seventh District to start now and make an earnest effort to contact everyone they know, members of all Local Unions, relatives and friends, to register and vote for Carl Perkins in the August primaries, all those who are registered on the Democratic ticket.

This campaign is now launched. We must show that we value honest, sincere service on behalf of the people in the Congress of the United States by not only re-electing Congressman Carl Perkins, but by giving him the biggest majority that a Congressman ever got from this District, to show him the people appreciate his honest efforts and intelligent representation in the Congress of the United States.
